Court calls case and notes appearances.

Court reviews the procedural posture of each case.

The parties discuss upcoming responses/answer and possible motion for consolidation.

The parties respond to inquiries of the Court.

Discussion regarding upcoming election dates.

Mr. Sells notes that they have not filed a motion for preliminary injunction in the Turtle Mountain case and hope that case is resolved in time for the 2024 election; believes that case will be heavily dependant on expert testimony.

Mr. Sanderson notes that they do not believe discovery is going to be necessary (Walen case).

Mr. Sanderson notes that due to the weather and staff ability to get to the office, they request an extension of their reply until Monday; no objections; Court grants the request.

The Court notes the possibility of having an administrative tracking of discovery in the cases.

Court adjourned.
